Introduction

Throughout its long history, the APAC Food Safety Conference (formerly known as the Australian HACCP Conference) has received extensive media coverage and has been labeled as the leading Australian food safety event. Now in its 26th year, the conference is seen as the must-attend event for food safety professionals which regularly attracts over two hundred delegates across the food manufacturing, agriculture and retail sectors.

The theme of this year's conference is Emerging Food and Safety Risks: Meeting the Challenge.

Food safety culture is paramount to future-proofing any business. Future challenges within the food sector include technology, globalisation and the hidden supply chain. In the ever-changing landscape which is the global food supply chain, businesses are likely to encounter increasing risks across multiple channels. Join us as we explore these topics and more during this interactive three day event.

When 20–22 August, 2019

Agenda

- Day 1 (20 August): Food Manufacturing Tour or HACCP Refresher Course

Think Outside the Booth

For this year's APAC Food Safety Conference we're encouraging people to "think outside the booth" with their stand design. To help you with your exhibition stand we've listed some top tips for your consideration:

- Book in early to get the best stand location. All delegates will have a number of opportunities to visit all exhibition stands, but being front and centre is an easy way to encourage foot traffic to your stand.
- Maximise your space. Make sure to lock in your stand space and dimensions early, and work these into your designs to ensure your stand is welcoming and easily accessible. You may want to have meeting areas at the back of your stand to encourage people off the walkway, and reduce barriers to entering the stand. Consider upgrading to a double booth to optimise your exhibition space.
- Stand designers and builders can work wonders. Consider using an external agency to ensure your space has a high-quality look and feel, and your space is optimised. Ask to view previous stand designs / builds and check for company reviews and testimonials when going out to market. There can even be the possibility of storing your stand to use for different events.
- Don't confuse your messaging. Decide on your core brand message and stick to it. You may want to focus on one or two products you offer to ensure delegates are offered relevant information and remember your brand clearly.
- Take part in the APAC Food Safety Conference prize draw. More information will be provided when you register to exhibit at the conference.
